A SENSATIONAL SCRAP

Warm, But Not Long, Was the Embrace.

This morning at 11:30 E. W. Agnew and Judge W. S. Bullock had a fist-and-skull fight on the front porch of the Ocala House. Mr. Agnew was sitting down when Judge Bullock came up and told him he had been talking disparagingly of him and he wanted satisfaction, or something of the kind.

Mr. Agnew rose to his feet and they clinched, and began striking at each other. The bystanders interfered and prevented either from getting in a good blow.

They were soon separated, with no other damage than having made Mr. Agnew's nose bleed profusely.
